

Got Graffiti? We Can Help!

The Department of Public Works (DPW) is seeking wall donations from commercial property owners for its graffiti prevention initiative MuralsDC.

MuralsDC is a graffiti prevention program designed to end the cycle of tagging on commercial buildings. It works by replacing tagged walls with original works of art.

Did You Know?

Public art and Murals have been proven to:

- Brighten blighted corridors
- Boost economic development
- Is a great way to get your name out into the community
- Can strengthen your community outreach efforts

Apply for a Free Mural Today

DPW will consider submissions for this free program that meet the following criteria:

- Donated space must be for commercial use (cannot be a private residence) and located in the District of Columbia.
- The program will consider concrete and brick surfaces only.
- Owners must consent (via a signed Authorization and Release form) to donate wall space for at least one year and leave the mural intact for that year.
- Donated space must be highly visible by vehicles and/or pedestrian traffic.

For more information, contact:

Email Nancee.lyons@dc.gov

Call 202-671-2637

Visit <http://www.muralsdcproject.com>

